Dear Colonel

STAT

General Smith has asked me to reply to your letter of 27 September in which you note that you are about to  It was good of you to offer to be of service during your trip but there is nothing which you can do for us at this juncture.

I have meanwhile checked into your application and have discovered that we have no present opening which would make use of your particular qualifications, although we shall keep them on file.

Thank you for bearing us in mind.

Sincerely,

Assistant to the Director
